

Free Birds Fly is a must-read if you love to read poetry, and especially for you who love to read haiku poems, where a verse consists of three lines of 5-7-5 syllables. Free Birds Fly is written by the Danish author and gender debater Bertill Nordahl, who writes books for children, teenagers and adults, and who lives most of the year in the small town Skoghult in Smaland in Sweden. The poems in Free Birds Fly follows the four seasons, and describes the daily life as it takes place indoors and outdoors, as well as thoughts and reflections about life in general.
